Find Religious Growth Gaining

Increased Interest Cited in Church Programs in United States.

CHICAGO. — Dr. Roy G. Ross, general secretary of the International Council of Religious Education, reports that religious education in church-sponsored programs, he predicts further increases and says:

"The general 'climate' in America is much more favorable to religious education than it was a decade ago.

"Our more substantial citizens are shocked by conditions which have resulted from lack of adequate religious training — broken homes, increased intemperance and child delinquency.

Have Bigger Turnouts.

"Therefore, there is a manifestation of interest and concern on the part of serious-minded parents and civic leaders such as we haven't had in a quarter-century."

Dr. Ross says there have been bigger turnouts at sessions devoted to instruction and character development since the end of the war. But, he adds, the gains are "not nearly large enough."

"During the last two years attendance has picked up decidedly," he says. "I foresee a much larger pickup in the years immediately ahead."

He submits these statistics on activities:

More than two million students were released from public schools for an hour a week this year so they could receive religious instruction at weekday schools sponsored by Protestant churches. The plan was in effect in 2,200 communities, a number that has been doubled in seven years.

Youth Work Grows.

About 34 million persons now are enrolled in Sunday schools.

Some five million children and young folks attend vacation church schools, conducted for periods ranging up to four weeks during the summer months.

An estimated 350,000 to 400,000 young people go to 2,500 summer camps and conferences. The camps —some denominational, some interdenominational — combine study, worship and recreation. In some camps selected young men and women are trained for leadership in their home congregations.

Dr. Ross also reports a rapid growth of interdenominational youth work through such agencies of cooperative action as local community youth councils, the national United Christian youth movement and the world youth conference at Oslo.

"Christian education is the only means by which America can find an adequate national faith," he says. "As such it is the best antidote for false philosophies of life, including those of atheistic communism."

Trials Show Efficient Feeding of Molasses

Three series of trials using a total of 122 pigs were conducted to determine the maximum amount of cane molasses that can be utilized efficiently by pigs from weaning to a weight of 70 pounds. Rations containing levels of 10, 20, 30 and 40 per cent molasses were compared with check rations containing no molasses in the experiments at University of Hawaii.

The results indicate that, with the rations fed, 20 per cent is the maximum amount that will allow satisfactory gains and efficient feed utilization. Above this level of molasses both the rate of gain and efficiency of feed utilization decreases markedly.

THE LEAST YOU CAN DO

★ The early Greek physicians believed that it was not possible for a man to enjoy perfect health unless he carefully organized his life to accomplish this single objective. This meant the meticulous ordering of each day. Proper nutrition, exercise, and rest were perfectly balanced. Physical constitution, age, and even the seasons of the year were considered.

For a man of affairs, such a regimen is out of the question. When your work is done, you play and exercise. When you can. But this little you can do. See your family physician at least once a year. Follow his advice. If medication is required, we are prepared to serve you promptly and economically.

Appomattox First County Over The Top

Appomattox County is still at its favorite pastime: being the first in the state to reach its quota in a drive for funds!

County chairman David T. Robinson of the Virginia Committee, National Service Fund of the Disabled American Veterans, advises that Appomattox had a quota of $225 in a state-wide drive slated to open last Monday morning.

The quota was raised and the state headquarters so notified early —you guessed it—Monday morning. Mr. Robertson has been notified that Appomattox was first in Virginia to go "over the top."

W. M. Abbitt is Fourth District chairman for this drive.

Cost Listed Maintaining Primary Roads

Richmond, Nov. 19.- Although only $1.06 per mile, per day is available for routine maintenance on the primary roads of Appomattox County, State Highway Department figures showed this week that this will add up to a total maintenance expenditure of $23,167 during the current fiscal year.

This amount, going for maintenance of the 70.33 miles of primary highways in the county, does not include heavy maintenance replacement work such as bituminous retreatments and bridge repairs, highway officials pointed out.

Maintaining the 9,000 mile primary highway system in Virginia will cost the state a total of $6,000,000 before the fiscal year is ended, the department added. Of this amount, more than $3,600,000 will go for routine maintenance operations.

"The average highway user has no idea of the heavy cost of road maintenance," a department spokesman commented. "It is essential that we protect our road investment before we go overboard on new construction, however badly needed."

Soil Office To Stay Here

At last Thursday's meeting of the Lions Club, a committee headed by W. M. Abbitt was asked to investigate a report that the Soil Conservation District Office located here might be consolidated with another district and moved to another town. The committee was active over the week-end, and we are informed by W. M. Abbitt that he has been advised that the office will not be moved.

The Lions Club went on record as commending the contribution of the soil conservation program to the agricultural well-being of this area, and urged that the district office be retained here, where it has very suitable quarters, and where the personnel has housing. The club felt that the presence of the office here was a distinct asset and urged that it not be moved. Therefore, it will be delgted at the good news received by Mr. Abbitt's committee.

Opportunity Offered To Give for Food

An OPPORTUNITY is given to the people of Appomattox County to participate in sending food to needy Europe on the FRIENDSHIP Train.

A unit of the Friendship Train will pass through Lynchburg next Wednesday at 2:30 A. M. Food must be in place there next Tuesday afternoon. That means that the contribution from this county must be in hand Monday.

The following items ONLY will be accepted:

Canned milk in case lots
100 lb. bags of sugar
100 lb. sacks of flour
100 lb. sacks of beans or peas.

Due to the limited nature of what can be loaded on the Friendship Train, it has been suggested that Appomattox county people give cash and that this cash be used to buy as much of the above items as possible, at wholesale prices.

C. H. Robinson, publisher of the Times-Virginian, has been asked to receive contributions for this cause. Some cash gifts are already in hand. Some churches may wish to raise funds this Sunday. However, all contributions must be in Mr. Robinson's hands this Monday. He has arranged to secure foodstuffs at wholesale prices and Mr. Vernell Mitchell has offered to haul all same to Lynchburg next Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning.

100% of your gift will go to food for the hungry in Europe. There is NO other costs.

All the nation is giving freely of its bounty to the Friendship Train. It is sweep across America, and load upon carload of food has been added. It had to be divided into sections. It is the Southern section that will pass through Virginia.

The whirlwind undertaking, started only a few days ago, has reached amazing proportions. Seldom has anything so captured the mind of the public.

Mr. Robinson said today: "Yesterday a World War II Veteran came in with a nice cash contribution to this cause. He said he had seen the need with his own eyes— hungry children begging for scraps and left-overs, and a countryside so torn up and razed by war that it will be years before even thrifty, industrious people can feed themselves— and he wanted to help. And he said want his name mentioned, because he was giving out of his heart, not for recognition!

So, there you are! You are NOT being begged. You are NOT being asked. You can pass it up if you like! But you ARE being given an OPPORTUNITY if you want to feed hungry people who stood between YOU and war's ravages and in so doing lost everything— have your contribution in hand by Monday morning!

Hunting Season Opens Today In Virginia

General hunting season opened today, for a full corps of nimrods in the fields to practice their traditional sport.

It was a fair day for hunting, and normal supplies of game were reported.

New hunting rules were being enforced this year. Many lands were "posted" and written permission is required from landowners to hunt on "posted" land.

A member of the State Game Commission telephoned the Times-Virginian this week to ask that the public be made aware of the fact that the rule requiring written permission to hunt on "posted" land was an act of the last special session of the General Assembly, and not an regulation issued by the Game Commision. He pointed out, howere, that this requiremen was aimed to protect the rights of the landowner, especially the small land owner from trespassing by strange hunters roaming the countryside. He stated that many felt it was only fair to the farmer that his permission be obtained before hunting on his land and that a privilege worth having was worth asking for. Most farmers readily grant hunting permission to their neighbors and also to those who cooperate with the protection of property.

Season In State Forest

There will be an open season for taking gobblers only in the Cumberland State Forest for three days, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, December 3, 4 and 5, the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries has announced. This will be the only period of legal hunting in the Cumberland Forest.

The other State Forests will be open to gunners for the week of December 1—6, and the taking of turkeys of both sexes will be permitted.

Playground Equipment

All local residents having any old pipe, not usable for water lines, etc., but still strong, are asked to please leave same next to the school shop here. The boys in the shop will sand and paint and assemble it for swings, slides, sea saws, etc. for the school playground. Residents having any playground equipment are asked to see Mrs. C. T. Moses, Jr., chairman of the community service committee of the American Legion Auxiliary. The Auxiliary is sponsoring a project for playground improvement.

Garden Club Meeting

The Appomattox Garden Club will meet Monday night, in the high school cafeteria, at 8:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Helen Shouse will demonstrate ways of making Christmas wreaths and decorations.

The exhibit will consist of Thanksgiving table arrangements. Two members of the Lynchburg Garden Club, Mrs. Utt and Mrs. Dilon, are to act as judges. All members are urged to bring a ladies pocket book filled with items to send overseas for relief. This gift will serve a dual purpose as the purse may be used as well as the contents. Each purse should contain a toothbrush, paste, soap, a pack of needles and spools of thread.
